

2022 Nomination Form

Considering nominating for the Arts Nexus Inc. Management Committee?

Arts Nexus Inc. is a not-for-profit organisation, founded in 1995 and incorporated in May 1996 as the inclusive umbrella body for all arts, cultural and creative industries in FNQ. We are seeking enthusiastic, financial members to nominate to join our active management committee with the view of supporting the organisation into the future. If you are considering nominating or nominating others, you may like to consider the skills and qualities that will contribute to good outcomes for the region's art and cultural sector as a whole. Nominations will be promoted to the membership by 29 June, 2022.

Please PROVIDE your bio and photo to support your nomination and introduce you to the members.

In agreeing to nominate for election, management committee members undertake not to act in their own self interest, or to represent any particular organisation, but are voted in to act as individuals whose particular skills or networks are of value on behalf of the whole FNQ Arts community and Creative sector, and to progress the Arts Nexus mission and objectives described in the recent Arts Nexus Strategic Plan.

The following are the kinds of values and skills that will be important:

- Evidence of broad established networks
- Ideal's regarding collaborative relationships / cooperative participation in public life
- Understanding the wider community, including the business environment
- Understanding of strategic directions and organisational procedures
- Ability to consult when indicated, and to make decisions together
- Ability to work effectively as a team
- Ability to set aside self-interest to progress the greater public good
- Confidentiality and ethical integrity
- Ideals regarding inclusiveness (eg. First Nation, access and cultural diversity)
- Particular art-form, events, business, governmental or other relevant knowledge
