Growing creative people, communities and industries

Arts Nexus connects northern Queensland's artists, creative producers, organisations, enterprises and communities. We do this by advocating and supporting creative producers and communities with a range of services and projects:

Creative Sector Development

Supporting producers and people to make creative projects happen across all art forms.

Community Sector Development

Supporting people to live, consume and contribute to culture. Building region-wide community participation in cultural activity including: public art, festivals, creative community projects and cultural policy development.

Advocacy

Building recognition of creative producers and communities. Advocating to all levels of government and industry on issues and priorities for the creative sector.

Our specialised services

With over 25 years experience in cultural and community development our expert services to individuals, industry, community groups and government agencies include:

- Arts project management
- Auspcing and planning
